

NIDS International Symposium on Security Affairs

Tuesday, February 3, 2009

Opening Session

Opening Remarks by Masahiro Shinbo, President, NIDS

Keynote Speeches

The Role of the Military in Peacebuilding

Michael Clarke, Royal United Services Institute (RUSI)

Civilian Surge

Hans Binnendijk, National Defense University

Session I Chair: Tomonori Yoshizaki, NIDS

Peace Operations at the Crossroad

Peace Operations at the Crossroad — British View

Jonathan Eyal, RUSI

Peacebuilding Operations: Australian Perspectives on Regional Tasks

James Cotton, Australian Defence Force Academy (ADFA)

Roles of the JSDF in Peace Building Operations: Evolution of Japan's Defense

Policy and Driving Factors

Noboru Yamaguchi, LTG GSDF (ret.)

Comment and Discussions

Discussants: Sukehiro Hasegawa, Hosei University

Yoshio Katayama, NIDS

Session II Chair: Mr. Keishi Ono, NIDS

Stabilization Operation and Alliance Management

Stability Operation and Alliance Management — The German View

Peter Schmidt, Stiftung Wissenschaft und Politik (SWP)

Stabilization Operation and Alliance Management — The French View

Etienne de Durand, Institut Français des relations internationales (Ifri)

The Role of the Military in Peacebuilding: A Japanese View

Tomonori Yoshizaki, NIDS

Comment and Discussions

Discussant: Yuji Uesugi, Hiroshima University

Session III Co-Chairs: Yoshizaki and Ono, NIDS

The Military's Role in Peacebuilding

Wrap-up Discussions

Discussant: Hideaki Shinoda, Hiroshima University

Closing Remarks by Shinichi Ogawa, Director of Research Department, NIDS