

Contributors

YOU Ji is professor of international relations and head of Department of Government, University of Macau. He has authored four books, including China's Military Transformation and The Armed Forces of China; and numerous articles. Among them are "Sino-US "Cat-and-Mouse" Game Concerning Freedom of Navigation and Overflight", Journal of Strategic Studies, Vol. 39, No. 5-6, 2016; "China's Indo-Pacific Strategy", Asian Policy, No. 22, July 2016 ; "China's National Security Council: Evolution, Rationality and Operations", Journal of Contemporary China, Vol. 25, No. 96, 2016; "Xi Jinping and PLA Centrality in Managing the South China Sea Disputes", China: International Journal, Vol. 15, No. 2, 2017, "Managing conflicts on Korean Peninsula: a Challenge to China's national security", The Bulletin on Korea Studies, Vol. 30, 2017, "Managing the South China Sea Dilemma: China's Strategy and Policy", in Lowell Dittmer and Ngeow Chow Bing (eds.), Southeast Asia and China: a Test in Mutual Socialization, World Scientific, 2017, and "Fragmented Party Control of the Gun: Civil-Military Relations in China", in Kjek Erik Brodsgaard (ed.), Chinese Politics as Fragmented Authoritarianism, Routledge, 2017. You Ji is on the editorial board of eight academic journals including The China Journal, Issue and Studies, and Journal of Contemporary China.

Iis GINDARSAH is a Researcher in the Department of Politics and International Relations at the Centre for Strategic and International Studies (CSIS), Jakarta. Gigin holds a Master degree on Strategic Studies at the S. Rajaratnam School of International Studies, Nanyang Technological University (2010), Singapore. He also earned a Master degree on International Relations from the Faculty of Social and Political Sciences, University of Indonesia (2009). His research interests include military technological innovations, civil-military relations, defense diplomacy and regional security complex in East Asia. He has published essays and commentaries on these issues in edited volumes, peer-reviewed journals and media outlets, including Defense and Security Analysis, Contemporary South East Asia, RSIS Working Paper, Indonesia Quarterly, and The Jakarta Post. His edited volumes are as follows; "Indonesia's Security Review: Complex but Stable," in Eiichi Katahara, ed., Security Outlook of the Asia Pacific Countries and Its Implications for the Defense Sector (Tokyo: NIDS, 2016), pp. 11-20; Co-authored with Adhi Priamarizki, "Politics, Security and Defence in Indonesia: The Pursuit of Strategic Autonomy," in Christopher Roberts, Derry Habir, and Leonard Sebastian, eds., Indonesia's Ascent: Power, Leadership and Asia's Security Order (London: Palgrave Macmillan, 2015), pp.

130-154; Co-authored with Leonard C. Sebastian, "Taking Stock of Military Reform in Indonesia," in Jurgen Ruland, Maria-Gabriela Manea and Hans Born, eds., The Politics of Military Reform: Experiences from Indonesia and Nigeria (Berlin: Springer-Verlag, 2012), pp. 29-56. His peer-reviewed journals are as follows; "Strategic Hedging in Indonesia's Defense Diplomacy," Defense and Security Analysis, Vol. 32, No. 4 (2016), pp. 336-353; "Regional Order and Military Power in East Asia: China's Greater Ambitions," The Indonesian Quarterly, Vol. 43, No. 1 (2015), pp. 93-101; "Indonesia's Diplomacy and Defense Strategies under Yudhoyono," The Indonesian Quarterly, Vol. 42, No. 3-4 (2014), pp. 216-229; Co-authored with Leonard C. Sebastian, "Assessing Military Reform in Indonesia," Defense and Security Analysis, Vol. 29, No. 3 (December 2013); "Democracy and Foreign-policy Making in Indonesia: A Case Study of Iranian Nuclear Issue, 2007-08," Contemporary Southeast Asia, Vol. 34, No. 3 (2012), pp. 416-437.

Renato Cruz De CASTRO is a full professor (on Sabbatical Leave) in the International Studies Department, De La Salle University, Manila, and holds the Charles Lui Chi Keung Professorial Chair in China Studies. He was the U.S.-ASEAN Fulbright Initiative Researcher from the Philippines and was based in the East-West Center in Washington D.C. from September to December 2016. He is an alumnus of the Daniel Inouye Asia-Pacific Center for Security Studies in Hawaii, U.S.A. In 2009, Dr. De Castro became the U.S. State Department ASEAN Research Fellow from the Philippines and was based in the Political Science Department of Arizona State University. He earned his Ph.D. from the Government and International Studies Department of the University of South Carolina as a Fulbright Scholar in 2001, and obtained his B.A. and two master's degrees from the University of the Philippines. Professor De Castro has conducted several courses on International Relations and Security Studies in the National Defense College and Foreign Service Institute. He is also a member of the Board of Trustees of the Albert Del Rosario Institute for Strategic and International Studies (ADR Institute), and a consultant in the National Security Council of the Philippines during the Aquino Administration. Professor De Castro's research interests include Philippine-U.S. security relations, Philippine defense and foreign policies, U.S. defense and foreign policies in East Asia, and the international politics of East Asia. He has written 85 articles on international relations and security that have been published in a number of scholarly journals and edited works in the Philippines, Japan, South Korea, Canada, Malaysia, France, Singapore, Taiwan, Germany, the United Kingdom, Australia, and the United States.

Do Thanh HAI is a Senior Fellow and Director of the Centre for Information and Analysis, Bien Dong Maritime Institute at the Diplomatic Academy of Vietnam, a think-tank affiliated to Vietnam's Foreign Ministry. He holds a PhD in political and strategic studies at the Australian National University and a Master of Arts from the European Master's Course "Global Studies – A European Perspective" jointly offered by the University of Vienna and the University of Wrocław. He had previously been awarded an Erasmus Mundus Scholarship, the Award for Best Graduate of the Year 2008 by the Erasmus Mundus Global Studies Consortium, and Australian Prime Minister's Endeavour Award. He is the author of the book titled Vietnam and the South China Sea: Politics, Security and Legality published by Routledge in 2017. His written works are also published on The ASAN Forum, CSIS PacNet Newsletter, Today, and The National Interest.

Mariko KAWANO

Professor of International Law, Faculty of Law, Waseda University.

MA, University of Tokyo and LL.M., Cambridge University.

She works with several governmental committees, including the Consultative Committee on Maritime Affairs (2007-, Chairperson, 2014-) and the Headquarters for Ocean Policy of the Government of Japan (Councilor, 2012-2016). She lectured in the summer course on public international law at the Hague Academy in 2009 and the course was published "The Role of Judicial Procedures in the Process of the Pacific Settlement of International Disputes", Recueil des cours, Vol. 346 (2009), pp. 6-473. She also contributed her lectures at the Audiovisual Library of International Law (AVL) of the UN. Her interests focus upon the settlement of international disputes, the law of State responsibility and the law of the sea.

Raul (Pete) PEDROZO is a Deputy General Counsel, Department of Defense, and non-resident Research Fellow at the Stockton Center for the Study of International Law, Naval War College (NWC). He previously served as Special Assistant to the Under Secretary of Defense for Policy, senior legal advisor to Commander, U.S. Pacific Command, and professor of international law at the NWC. He has lectured extensively at military and civilian academic institutions and participated in numerous multilateral and bilateral negotiations, including the International Maritime Organization. CAPT Pedrozo has written extensively on maritime security issues and is the co-author to International Maritime Security Law (Brill/Martinus Nijhoff Publishers, 2013). He has an LL.M. (International & Comparative Law), Georgetown University Law Center and J.D. (Law), The Ohio State University College of Law.

Takuya SHIMODAIRA is Senior Research Fellow at the National Institute for Defense Studies (NIDS). He joined NIDS in 2016. He was Visiting Military Professor in Joint Military Operations Department, U.S. Naval War College from 2014 to 2016. He received Ph. D in Political Science from Kokushikan University in Tokyo. His research focus on the Maritime Security in the India-Asia-Pacific region. His publications include “The significance of First Chinese Aircraft Carrier,” in Ryo Asano and Toshihide Yamauchi eds., Chinese Sea Power (Tokyo: Sotosha, 2014) (in Japanese), “The Japan Maritime Self-Defense Force in the Age of Multilateral Cooperation,” Naval War College Review, Vol. 67, No. 2 (Spring 2014), “Cooperating in the South China Sea,” Proceedings, Vol. 141/4/1. 346 (April 2015).

Seiya EIFUKU is Research Fellow at the National Institute for Defense Studies (NIDS). He joined NIDS in 2016. He earned his Ph.D. in International Law from National Yokohama University and obtained an LLM in International Law from Kansai University and an MA in Economics from Yamaguchi University. His research focus on issues of international law related to law of the sea, law of armed conflict and international criminal law. He has written on issues related to international law and is the author to An analysis of Superior responsibility under Article 28 of the Rome Statute of the International Criminal Court (Naigai-Shuppan, Inc., 2014) *Japanese.

NIDS International Symposium on Security Affairs

“Maintaining Maritime Order in the Asia-Pacific”

July 19, 2017

Hotel Chinzanso Tokyo

OPENING REMARKS: Noriaki Nakamura, President, the National Institute for Defense Studies (NIDS)

WELCOMING REMARKS: Takayuki Kobayashi, Parliamentary Vice-Minister of Defense

INTRODUCTION: Yoshiaki Sakaguchi, Executive Director for Research and International Affairs, NIDS

SESSION I “Current Issues of the South China Sea”

Chair: Tomotaka Shoji, Head, America, Europe, and Russia Division,
NIDS

Speakers:

You Ji, Professor, University of Macau

Iis Gindarsah, Researcher, Centre for Strategic and International Studies (CSIS), Indonesia

Renato De Castro, Professor, De La Salle University, Philippines

Do Thanh Hai, Senior Fellow, Diplomatic Academy of Vietnam

Discussant: Masafumi Iida, Senior Research Fellow, NIDS

SESSION II “Rule of Law and Maintenance of Maritime Order”

Chair: Yasuaki Hashimoto, Director, Policy Studies Department, NIDS

Speakers:

Mariko Kawano, Professor, Waseda University

Raul Pedrozo, Deputy General Counsel, Department of Defense, USA

Takuya Shimodaira, Senior Research Fellow, NIDS

Seiya Eifuku, Research Fellow, NIDS

Discussant: Tomohiko Satake, Senior Research Fellow, NIDS

SESSION III General Discussion

Chair: Tomotaka Shoji, Head, America, Europe, and Russia Division,
NIDS

CLOSING REMARKS: Susumu Isakai, Vice President, NIDS