

Contents

Preface	iii
List of Abbreviations	x
Overview: East Asia in 2008	1
1. From Bush to Obama	3
2. The Issue of China as a Responsible Great Power	5
3. Progress in International Cooperation on Large-scale Natural Disasters	6
4. Heightened Interest in Climate Change, Energy, and Food Issues.....	7
Chapter 1: A Nuclear Energy Renaissance and the Nuclear Non-proliferation Regime	9
1. Addressing Inherent Problems of NPT Article IV	12
2. Problem of Withdrawal from NPT	16
3. Preventing Proliferation to Terrorists and Other Non-state Actors.....	18
(1) Risk of Nuclear Terrorism	18
(2) Measures to Combat Nuclear Terrorism.....	21
4. Resumption of United States-India Nuclear Cooperation.....	26
(1) Background to Deepening United States-India Ties and Agreement on Nuclear Energy for Civilian Uses.....	26
(2) Outline of US-India Nuclear Deal.....	29
(3) From Hyde Act to US-India Nuclear Cooperation Agreement	31
(4) Stance of the NSG and US Congress concerning US-India Nuclear Cooperation Agreement.....	34
(5) Resumption of Nuclear Cooperation with India and the Nuclear Non-proliferation Regime	37
Chapter 2: The Security Implications of Climate, Energy, and Food Issues	43
1. Climate Change and Security	46
(1) Discussion in the International Community concerning Climate Change and Security.....	46
(2) The Impact of Climate Change on Security	50

Contents

2. The Energy Problem and Security.....	54
(1) Oil Price Trends.....	54
(2) Factors Discouraging Investment	59
(3) The Impact of Rising Energy Prices on Security	60
3. The Food Problem and Security	61
(1) The Surge in Food Prices.....	61
(2) Causes of and Responses to the Surge in Food Prices	62
(3) Increasing Interest in Biofuels.....	64
(4) The Impact of the Rise in Food Prices on Security	67

Chapter 3: The Korean Peninsula—A Stalled Denuclearization of North

Korea and the Rebuilding of the US-South Korea Alliance

1. Six-party Talks Stall over Verification.....	72
(1) Renewed Suspicions over Uranium Enrichment and WMD Proliferation.....	72
(2) Campaigning for Removal from the State Sponsors of Terrorism List	73
(3) The Bargaining Chip of Yongbyon Disablement and a Lack of Clarity Surrounding the DPRK's "Strategic Decision"	75
2. North Korea—Progressing Steadily toward a de facto Nuclear Weapons State	78
(1) Focusing on the Domestic Economy with the Aim of Becoming a "Great, Prosperous, and Powerful Country".....	78
(2) The 10th Anniversary of Taepodong's Launch, and the Discovery of a New Missile Site.....	80
(3) A Continuation of a US-first Foreign Policy, and Pressuring Japan on the Abduction Issue and on Its Obligation to Supply Fuel Oil.....	81
(4) Rising International Concerns about the Stability of the Regime.....	83
(5) Policy Implications for Japan	86
3. South Korea—A Conservative Government Seeking to Repair the Economy and Relations with the United States	88
(1) Anti-government Rallies: A First Big Test for the New Administration	88
(2) A Future-Oriented US-ROK Alliance	90
(3) Strengthening Relations with Japan, China, and Russia	92

(4) Stagnant Relationship with North Korea	96
(5) National Defense Review	99
Chapter 4: China—Confidence Tempered with Unease	107
1. Seeking Stability in the International Environment	110
(1) The Absolute Necessity—and Limitations—of External Cooperation	110
(2) Strengthening Relations with Japan	113
(3) Cross-Straits Relations Improving	120
2. China's Global Strategy Aimed at Building a "Harmonious World"	124
(1) China's Policy toward Developing Countries and Regions	124
(2) China's Proactive Diplomacy toward Africa	128
(3) China's Major Power Relations Face Hurdles	131
3. The Impact of Nontraditional Threats on the PLA	136
(1) Continuing Increases in Defense Spending	136
(2) Awareness of Inadequacies in Strategic Power Projection	140
(3) Continuing Reform of Organizational Structure	143
(4) The Creation of a Spokesperson at the Ministry of National Defense	145
4. Taiwanese Defense Policy Shifting toward "Defense"	147
Chapter 5: Southeast Asia—Progress in Cooperation on Non-traditional Security	151
1. Myanmar's Cyclone Damage and International Relief Operations	154
(1) The International Response toward the Military Regime after Its Suppression of Street Demonstrations	154
(2) The Drafting of a New Constitution	156
(3) Response by the Military Regime and International Community to the Cyclone Devastation	158
(4) ASEAN's Response to the Cyclone	160
2. Domestic Politics in ASEAN, and Intra-regional and Extra-regional Relations	163
(1) Domestic Politics—Political Change in Malaysia and Thailand	163
(2) Intra-regional Relations—Ratification of the ASEAN Charter and the Establishment of a Human Rights Body	168

Contents

(3) Extra-regional Relations—A Focus on Japan and North Korea.....	170
3. Military Trends in Southeast Asia	174
(1) National Defense Budgets and Procurement Activity— A Focus on Arms Procurement by Indonesia	174
(2) Terrorism in the Region and Progress in Military Cooperation— A Focus on the Philippines	176
Chapter 6: Russia—Evolving into an Independent Strategic Player	181
1. A Historically Unconventional Tandem Leadership Structure.....	184
(1) The Inauguration of the New Medvedev Administration	184
(2) Russia's Development Strategy to 2020	187
(3) Strains in Civil-military Relations.....	189
2. A Continued Assertive Russian Foreign Policy.....	192
(1) Russia's First Extraterritorial Military Action since the Demise of the Soviet Union	192
(2) Deteriorating US-Russia Relations	196
(3) A Search for Russia's Own Brand of East Asian Diplomacy	199
3. Innovation in the Russian Armed Forces.....	204
(1) A New Phase of Military Reform	204
(2) An Expanded Military Sphere of Influence.....	208
(3) Revitalization of the Weakened Defense Industry.....	210
Chapter 7: The United States—The End of the Bush Administration and the Challenges That Remain	215
1. US Security Strategy	218
(1) A Crucial Juncture for US Strategy on Iraq and the War on Terrorism	218
(2) New Directions in Defense Strategy—The NDS and National Security and Nuclear Weapons in the 21st Century	229
(3) Missile Defense and US-Russia Relations	232
(4) US Military Transformation under the Bush Administration.....	234
2. US Policy toward the Asia-Pacific Region	236
(1) Relations with Major East Asian Countries	236
(2) The US Response to the North Korean Nuclear Issue	241
3. The Outlook for the Obama Administration's Security Strategy and Foreign Policy.....	244

Chapter 8: Japan—Reviewing the National Defense Program Guidelines	249
1. The Japan-US Alliance under the Bush Administration and Challenges Going Forward.....	252
(1) The Japan-US Alliance—“Better Than Ever”	252
(2) The USFJ Realignment—Moving from Agreement to Action.....	254
(3) Post-Bush Administration Challenges for the Japan-US Alliance	257
2. A Crossroads for SDF Involvement in International Peace Cooperation	260
(1) International Peace Cooperation Activities as Defined by the NDPG 2004, and SDF Involvement in UN Peacekeeping Operations.....	260
(2) Background of the Reduction in SDF International Peace Cooperation	263
(3) Afghanistan—A Need for Greater International Support	268
(4) The Escalating Problem of Somalian Piracy	272
3. Challenges for Japan’s Defense Capabilities.....	276
(1) NDPG2004—Two Objectives and Three Approaches.....	276
(2) Assessment of Basic Thinking Underlying the NDPG2004	277
(3) Debate Concerning Nature of Japan’s Defense Capability Going Forward.....	279
 Commentaries and References
Enriched Uranium	19
Nuclear Suppliers Group (NSG).....	28
The “Year 2012” Issue	84
What is the US “Red Line” vis-à-vis North Korea?	85
The Kim Jong Il Succession Issue	87
South Korea: Steady Progress in Modernization of Military Equipment.....	105
China’s 2008 Defense White Paper.....	138
Myanmar’s Roadmap to Democracy.....	156
The Treaty of Amity and Cooperation in Southeast Asia (TAC)	171
Outline of US-Russia Strategic Framework Declaration (April 6, 2008).....	197
Pakistan in Turmoil	228
Japan-Australia Security Cooperation	266