

Contents

Preface	iii
List of Abbreviations	xi
Introduction: East Asia in 2015—An Increasingly Severe Strategic Environment	1
Chapter 1 Space Security: Global Trends and Japan’s Efforts	9
1. Intensifying Global Dependence on Space Systems	12
(1) Permeation of the Utilization of Space in Daily Lives.....	12
(2) Deepening of the Military Utilization of Space by the United States	13
(3) Global Expansion of the Military Utilization of Space	15
2. The Arrival of an Era in Which Space Utilization Can No Longer Be Taken for Granted	17
(1) Space Congestion and the Development of Counterspace Capabilities by Various Countries	17
(2) Major Countries’ Actions to Secure the Stable Utilization of Space	21
3. Japan’s Space Security Policy.....	26
(1) Changes Wrought by the Passage of the Basic Space Law.....	26
(2) Development of Japan’s Basic Plan on Space Policy, and National Security	29
(3) International Cooperation in Space Security	31
Chapter 2 The Spread of Radical Islamism: The Middle East and International Community after the “Arab Spring”	43
1. ISIL’s Expansion in Syria and Iraq	46
(1) From the Birth of ISIL’s Predecessor to the Establishment of “Islamic State”	46
(2) Establishment of Controlled Areas in Syria and Iraq.....	49
2. Expansion of ISIL into Neighboring Arab Countries.....	54

Contents

(1) Egypt—Expansion of Terrorism through ISIL-Sinai Province	54
(2) Libya—Expansion of ISIL in the Absence of a Central Government	59
(3) The Global Rivalry between ISIL and al-Qaeda	61
3. The International Community and ISIL	63
(1) The International Community’s Response to ISIL and Its Difficulties	63
(2) Implications for Security in East Asia	66

Chapter 3 The Korean Peninsula: North Korea’s Advanced Nuclear and Missile Capabilities, and South Korea’s Response

75

1. Acceleration of Nuclear and Missile Development	78
(1) The Threat of SLBMs and Special Operations Capabilities	78
(2) Continuation of Hard-Soft Diplomatic Tactics	83
2. Reinforcing the Dictatorship System under the Strategic Line on Carrying Out Economic Construction and Building Nuclear Armed Forces Simultaneously	86
(1) Continuation of a Reign of Terror through Purges	86
(2) Management of the Economy under the Strategic Line	89
3. Discretion toward China while Deterring North Korea—South Korea’s Diplomatic and Security Policies	91
(1) Efforts to Prop Up Relations with the United States and China at the Same Time, and a Rebooting of Relations with Japan	91
(2) The Improvement of Detection Capabilities as an Issue—The Defense Policies of South Korea	98

Chapter 4 China: Chinese Party Leadership Strives to Maintain Its Rule

109

1. Concerns at Home and Abroad for the Xi Government	112
(1) CPC Leaving No Haven for the Guilty in Anticorruption Campaign	112
(2) Chinese Attitudes and Actions on the South and East China Seas ...	115
(3) “New Normal” and “One Belt, One Road”	119
2. Digging In on Defense and Military Reform, Modernizing the PLA	123

(1) Release of a New Defense White Paper, Progress on Defense and Military Reform	123
(2) Training Leaning Toward Real Combat, Integration, and Informationization	127
(3) Equipment Development with the Stress on “Domestic,” and Civil-Military Cooperation.....	130
3. China-Taiwan Relations, Moving Toward Greater Tension	131
(1) Wariness Expressed toward the Ma Ying-jeou Administration’s Rapprochement	131
(2) Influence of the Presidential Election on China-Taiwan Relations...	135
(3) A Summit Meeting for the PRC and Taiwan	137

Chapter 5 Southeast Asia: Forming an ASEAN Political-Security

Community and Further Challenges	143
1. The ASEAN Community and Security in Southeast Asia.....	146
(1) Formation of the ASEAN Community.....	146
(2) Formation of the ASEAN Political-Security Community.....	147
(3) A Test for the Political-Security Community—Struggles with the South China Sea Issue.....	150
2. ASEAN Members’ Positions toward the South China Sea.....	154
(1) Malaysia—Moving Away from “Quiet Diplomacy”	154
(2) Vietnam—Rebalancing Its Relations with China and the United States	156
(3) The Philippines—Continuing with “Alliance, ASEAN, International Law”	159
3. Political Change and Its Aftermath in Southeast Asian Countries—Challenges for Political Liberalization	161
(1) Thailand—Seeking Its Own Political System.....	161
(2) Myanmar—Handing Over the Administration, and More Severe Ethnic Problems	161
(3) Indonesia—Operating an Administration with an Eye to the Economy, and Security	162
4. Development of Capabilities in Littoral Waters and Underwater—Naval Modernization of Malaysia and Singapore.....	163

Contents

(1) Malaysia—Expanding Role in the Era of Austerity.....	163
(2) Singapore—Investment in Defense Capabilities for 2030.....	168
(3) Government-Linked Companies in the Regional Defense Marketplace—The Strategy for International Collaboration with European Defense Manufacturers.....	170

Chapter 6 Australia: The Challenges of the Japan-Australia Quasi- Alliance

177

1. The Turnbull Government and Defence White Paper.....	179
(1) Change of Prime Ministers and China Policy	179
(2) Review Process of Defence White Paper: ADF's Mission, Structure, Budget.....	182
2. Continuing Engagement in the Indo-Pacific	185
(1) US-Australia Alliance	185
(2) Unstable Relationship with Indonesia.....	189
3. Australia as a “Quasi-Alliance Partner”	192
(1) The Japan-Australia “Quasi-Alliance”	192
(2) Multilateral Architecture and Japan-US-Australia Cooperation.....	202

Chapter 7 Russia: Focus of Strategic Engagement Shifts from Ukraine to Syria.....

207

1. Russia Takes Steps to Improve its Strategic Environment.....	210
(1) Ukraine Crisis No Longer at Center Stage	210
(2) Military Intervention in Syria and Bargaining with the West	214
(3) Cooperation with Eurasian Countries and China, and the Limits of Such Cooperation.....	218
(4) Russia Adopts More Active Approach toward Japan	223
2. Putin Administration Works to Rebuild Political Support.....	226
(1) Russia Loses Fiscal and Financial Policy Compass against Backdrop of Minus Growth.....	226
(2) Effects on Russian Energy Policy of Decline in Natural Resource Prices and Chinese Economic Slowdown	235
(3) Developments Ahead of the State Duma and Presidential Elections	237

3. Modernization of the Russian Military in Parallel with External Military Operations	241
(1) Focus on Professional, Rapid-Response Military and Strategic Nuclear Capabilities	241
(2) Military Equipment—Production and Deployment, and Export to China and Elsewhere	244

Chapter 8 The United States: Addressing an Increasingly Harsh Strategic Environment.....251

1. Developments in Asia-Pacific Policy	254
(1) Competitive Relationship Emerging in China Policy	254
(2) Mounting Concern over the South China Sea Disputes.....	257
(3) Initiatives to Strengthen Relationships with Allies and Partners	260
2. US Military Policy in the Asia Pacific	264
(1) The Asia-Pacific Rebalance and Strengthening of Military Presence	264
(2) New Developments in Counter-A2/AD Strategy	266
3. The Shifting Security Environment and US Defense Posture	269
(1) The Emerging “Russian Threat” and Its Impact on Defense Planning	269
(2) “BCA Caps” Debate and the Defense Budget from FY 2016	274
(3) “Structural Reform” of Defense Spending	282

Chapter 9 Japan: Upgrading of National Security Policy295

1. The Legislation for Peace and Security and Future National Security Policy	298
(1) Establishment of the Legislation for Peace and Security	298
(2) Upgrading Japan’s Initiatives through Legislation for Peace and Security	301
(3) Effects of the Legislation for Peace and Security	306
2. Formulation of the New Guidelines	309
(1) The Role and Revision of the Guidelines	309
(2) Three Distinctive Characteristics of the New Guidelines	311
(3) Toward Implementation of the New Guidelines	313

Contents

- 3. Development of Japan-US-ROK Defense Cooperation316
 - (1) The Influence of North Korea’s Nuclear/Missile Development—
Changes in the Geopolitical Strategic Structure316
 - (2) Development of Defense Cooperation among the United States, Japan and the ROK.....318