

Program
Participants

PROGRAM

PART I: The Korean War and Japan (08:45-11:00)

KEYNOTE SPEECH

Mike Mochizuki

“Strategic Linkage between Japan and Korea: American Perspectives during the Cold War”

SESSION

Shibayama Futoshi

“The Strategic Significance of a New Japan and the Establishment of a Western Alliance Network in the Far East in 1951 from the Perspective of the Western Powers”

Nam Kijeong

“The East Asian Armistice System and the Position of Japan: Taking Clues from the Korean War Fought by Japan”

Marc Gallicchio

“Korea and Japan in US Strategy, 1945-1955”

*Discussant: Shoji Junichiro (Senior Research Fellow, Center for Military History, National Institute for Defense Studies)

Discussion and Q&A

PART II: Japan-U.S.-R.O.K. Relations in the History of the Cold War (14:15-16:30)

SPECIAL ADDRESS

Hatano Sumio

“The Korean Peninsula and Japan’s National Security: A Historical Perspective”

SESSION

Kobayashi Somei

“International Relations in East Asia Before and After the Okinawa Reversion, as Seen Through South Korean Diplomatic Documents”

Choi Kyungwon

“U.S.-China Rapprochement and Japan-South Korea Security Relations: Was the Reconciliation of Deterrence and Diplomacy Possible?”

Soeya Yoshihide

“The End of the Cold War, and Japan-U.S./Japan-Republic of Korea Relations”

*Discussant: Nakajima Shingo (Head, History Research Office, Center for Military History, National Institute for Defense Studies)

Discussion and Q&A

PARTICIPANTS

Chairman

Tachikawa Kyoichi

Current Position: Director, Center for Military History, National Institute for Defense Studies, Japan

Education: Ph.D., Sophia University

Selected Publications:

Dainiji sekai taisen to Fransuryō Indosina: 'Nichifutsu kyōryoku' no kenkyū [World War II and French Indochina: A Study on Japan-France cooperation] (Keiryūsha, 2000)

Speakers

Mike Mochizuki

Current Position: Japan-U.S. Relations Chair, George Washington University

Education: Ph.D., Harvard University

Selected Publications:

Memory, Identity, and Commemorations of World War II: Anniversary Politics in Asia Pacific (co-authored, Lexington Books, 2018)

Shibayama Futoshi

Current Position: Professor, School of Policy Studies, Kwansai Gakuin University

Education: Ph. D. Yale University

Selected Publications:

Nihon saigunbi heno michi 1945-54 nen [The road to Japanese rearmaments: 1945-1954] (Minervashobō, 2010)

Nam Kijeong

Current Position: Director, Institute for Japanese Studies, Seoul University

Education: Ph.D., The University of Tokyo

Selected Publications:

Kichi kokka no tanjō: Chōsen sensō to Nihon/Amerika [The Birth of a Base-State: Japan's Korean War] (Tokyodo Shuppan, 2023)

Marc Gallicchio

Current Position: Chair in American History, Villanova University

Education: Ph.D., Temple University

Selected Publications:

Unconditional: The Japanese Surrender in World War II (Oxford University Press, 2020);
Implacable Foes: War in the Pacific, 1944-1945 (With Waldo Heinrichs) (Oxford University Press, 2017)

Hatano Sumio

Current Position: Director-general, Japan Center for Asian Historical Records, National Archives of Japan

Education: Ph.D., Keio University

Selected Publications:

Nihon no rekishi mondai kaidai shinban: 'Teikoku' no seisan kara yasukuni, ianfumondai made [Japan's historical issues, revised and updated edition: From the settlement of the "empire" to Yasukuni and the comfort women issue] (chūkō shinsho, 2022); Rekishi to shiten no Nichibei anpo jyōyaku: Kimitsu gaiko kiroku ga akasu 'Mitsuyaku' no kyojitsu [The Japan-U.S. Security Treaty as history: Confidential diplomatic records show the facts and fiction of the "secret agreements"] (Iwanami shoten, 2010)

Kobayashi Somei

Current Position: Professor, Faculty of Law, Nihon University

Education: Ph.D., Hitotsubashi University

Selected Publications:

Nichibei dōmeiron: Rekishi, kinō, shūhen shokoku no shiten [The Japan-U.S. Alliance: History, functions, and perspectives of neighboring countries] (co-authored, Minervashobo, 2011)

Choi Kyungwon

Current Position: Professor, Faculty of Foreign Languages, Tokoha University

Education: Ph.D., Keio University

Selected Publications:

Reisenki Nikkan anzen hoshō kankei no keisei [Formation of Japan-ROK security relations during the cold war era] (Keio University Press, 2014)

Soeya Yoshihide

Current Position: Emeritus Professor, Faculty of Law, Keio University

Education: Ph.D., University of Michigan

Selected Publications:

Anzen hoshō o toinaosu: '9 jō-anpo taiei' o koete [Reconsidering security: Beyond "Article 9: Security Regime"] (NHK Books, 2016)