

Security & Strategy

Volume 5 Number 1 December 2024

The 2022 Revision of the Japan's Three Security Documents in the Context of Postwar History

CHIJIWA Yasuaki

Examining personnel contributions to the Persian Gulf during the Nakasone administration: Focusing on the issue of dispatching minesweepers

TAKASHIMA Masaaki
NAKAJIMA Shingo

The Political Failure of Japan's Human Contribution in the Gulf Crisis and the Quality of the Policy Process: Historical Lessons for policy makers and the policy functions of administrative organizations

MORONAGA Masaru

The History and Developments of the Overseas Operational Deployment Policy of the Japan Ground Self-Defense Forces: Focusing on the Era from the End of the Cold War until the UNTAC Deployment

KOBASHI Fumiyuki

Disinformation and the Law of Armed Conflict

EIFUKU Seiya

Loss and Restoration of Civilian Protection under International Humanitarian Law: The Position of the 'Revolving Door' Theory in International Law

NISHINO Masahito

The Formation of the Organizational Foundation of U.S. Special Operations Forces: From the Vietnam War to the War on Terror

TSUKAMOTO Katsuya

The U.S. Army's Understanding and Efforts of Low-Intensity Conflict in the Late 1980s: Focusing on the Concept and Execution of "Peacetime Contingency Operations"

SHIMPUKU Yuichi

Genealogy of the Southern Yemen's Separatism and the Strategy of the Southern Transitional Council: Path to the Third Pole in the Yemeni Civil War

YOSHIDA Tomoaki

The Japanese Army's Intelligence Activities against the Soviet Union as Information Warfare: The "Lineage of Intelligence Officers" and the War Termination Policies of the Pacific

HANADA Tomoyuki

Minister of the Navy Takarabe Takeshi and the issue of treatment of engineering officers during the Taisho period

YAMAGUCHI Masaya

On Domains of Operational Environment: An Analysis of Japan's Perception of Domains and Its Change

SAITO Takumi

NIDS